What I call the Quantum State Postulate (McIntyre's Postulate #1, p. 27) says:

"The state of a quantum mechanical system, including all the information you can known about it, is represented mathematically by a normalized ket."