Each of you is a point charge.

1. Make a linear charge density.
2. How would you measure the value of the density?
3. Answer the same questions for surface and volume charge densities.